Text-only versions

All sites must contain a link to a text-only version of the website for people who may not be able to view the graphics or hear the audio. Web Services provides a script that will dynamically convert any VCU webpage to a text only version.

- A text site is a supplement, not a replacement for an accessible website
- Sites should be readable when stylesheets are disabled

View text version